

Press Release

Munich, 13 March 2020

Employee in Munich tested positive on Coronavirus

HypoVereinsbank regrets to communicate that another colleague has tested positive for the COVID-19 virus (SARS-CoV-2). HypoVereinsbank is in ongoing contact with him/her to ensure he/she gets all the support possible and wishes him/her a speedy recovery.

As precautionary measure, HypoVereinsbank has deep-cleaned and disinfected all the relevant office spaces, which will remain off limits until further notice. We have also contacted all employees who may have been in close and recent contact with him/her, advising them to self-quarantine for 14 days and to follow the advice of the health authorities.

The health and well-being of people and customers is a top priority for UniCredit. The Group will continue to actively monitor the situation, always act in everyone's best interests and do the right thing!
